

Communication Protocol for Northwest Michigan 4-H Livestock Council

4-H Member

A 4-H Member is a youth enrolled as a 4-Her with 4-H Online and is a member of the NWMI 4-H Livestock Council. Our goal is to make our youth successful in striving to become the best he/she can be, consistent with the ideals expressed in the 4-H pledge and motto. Any concerns or issues that are 4-H related can start with a 4-H Youth.

4-H Leader

4-H Leaders are adults who have successfully completed the MSU Extension 4-H Volunteer Selection Process and have maintained their status as an MSU Extension 4-H volunteer with their respective county MSU Extension office. They are a wealth of knowledge and can help with an concerns a 4-H members has.

4-H Species Chair

4-H Species Chairs are adults who have successfully completed the MSU Extension 4-H Volunteer Selection Process. Each Chair sits on the Livestock Council Board. They are a wealth of knowledge in their species and the barns they help lead with our NWMI Fair Superintendents and can help with an concerns a 4-H member has elevated to their leader regarding that particular species or barn.

4-H Livestock Executive Board

4-H Executive Board members are adults who have successfully completed the MSU Extension 4-H Volunteer Selection Process. They oversee all things that attribute to the Northwest Michigan 4-H Livestock Council and any issues elevated to them by the 4-H Species Chairs will be answered with policy and procedure.

MSU Extension Staff

MSU Extension Staff are paid staff from Michigan State University have the final decision when issues are elevated to them from the executive board. Their wealth of knowledge along with policy and procedure helps guide the 4-H Livestock Council in their decision making.
